

North Montco Technical Career Center

Sample Writing Prompts for Journaling Activities

1. Explain the new information or process (concepts, ideas, etc.) in your own words.
2. Explain how the new information fits in with something you already know.
3. How does the new information cause you to change your mind about something you thought you knew?
4. Explain the newly learned process to a friend, a younger student, or to a relative.
5. Describe how you can use the new information that you have learned.
6. Explain why it is important to learn this information.
7. Explain those parts of the process or information that you consider to be difficult for others to understand.
8. Explain the tools, equipment, materials and/or safety procedures to be followed when conducting the process or procedure.
9. Explain areas of the process or procedure where errors could be made which would affect the end result.
10. Describe how you would explain this process to a new employee at your workplace.